'Help for People in Need'

Your help makes a difference! – Experiences, Reports, Facts

Number 3/2009 | Volume 15

Dear Reader!

With grateful hearts we'd like to thank all of those who put their charity into action – especially regarding this years incredible hot summertime, which was a great challenge to most citizen of Moldova. For the team of KALOS it was a great gladness and encouragement to know, that your trust is accompanying them through hot and cold weather.

Faithful donators and prayers supported our field work with affected families, older people and solitary persons whom we tried to support by words and deeds. A special thank to all of those, who made the summer camp possible for numerous children from Transnistria.

Other recent impressions: tears of joy and relief from the people who were starving because of the summers drought when KALOS supported them with food parcels. Prices for food were rising up to 50% in this time.

For the older people it was especially hard to endure the heat. Most of them didn't leave the house at all or reduced their outside time to a minimum to deal with the necessary things. The torridity was also decisive for the attendance at the soup kitchens.

But there were also positive impacts, especially for the vintage, which is positive for the economical situation of the country. The growing number of economical co-operations with western companies advances the traditional agriculture and the economical growth of the eastern countries.

Consequently it is always a question of the perspective how positive or negative a hot summer and its consequences can be experienced.

May we all benefit from challenging and difficult stages in our lives – relying upon God and his sovereign actions and by gainful handling with the situations.

Thank you for your support for our work!

With best blessings.

Sincerely your KALOS-Team
(Peter Schott, Management)

En route in your mission.

The period between seed and harvest is quite long. The time of harvest is connected to heavy work and is often a race against time.

For the Israelites it was a loud celebration – a Thanksgiving. Most of us live in countries where it is hard to recognize when it is spring or autumn. There are always different types of fruit, vegetables and bread in all different colors and sizes. This is a reason to thank and praise God for his grace. But looking at the fields in Moldova and Germany I see a big difference. While we are having a large crop they are experiencing a poor harvest. Causes are partially – but not completely – lying in the ability and action of the people.

Watching the people working on the fields I always think of the “big harvest” the bible is talking about and mankind is waiting for. According to the bible each one of us will stand in front of God and will be taken into responsibility.

But there is another analogy in the figurative sense, which is the growth process and ripening of the children taking part at the christian summer camps. Bashfully and insecure they get confronted with this new and unfamiliar topic. They ask many questions regarding God and faith: What does it mean to pray? How do you pray? Is it allowed to read the bible? An many more. After many years you can watch these young people working as staff members with other christian youth groups. Spiritual growth had taken place – a process which was initiated and guided by God himself.

Visible fruit, a small and sometimes wrong view on the harvest.

For many local christians most of the summer was filled by the christian summer camp. After investing a lot of time in prearranging and scheduling they can witness the desired effects of their effort. For many children and youths the summer camp was the best time of the year.

Together they had a nice time with a lot of sun, fun and companionship while doing sports, playing games, singing songs or handicraft working. The camp is more than just holiday for the children – what they don't know from their usual lives. Children and staff experience a time, where they get a chance to encounter God and many of them decide to live their lives in favor of Jesus Christ. Others set a new focus and intensity with their relationship to God to set new measures for their lives. The seed was planted by God had risen and flourished. We are assured that he'll care for the growing of the fruits as well.

At this point we'd like to thank you all of those who made it possible that the children and the staff could experience and enjoy this years summer camp. Thank you for the possibility to tell the children about Jesus. God bless you!

Not only the children were happy when the summer camp started. Many women from the christian communities were looking forward to the longed for “women’s weekend” with the topic “from heart to heart”.

There was a diversified program including practical work like handicraft work, arranging presents or cooking. New abilities were learned, old ones refreshed and tightened, so that they can be multipliers for the communities and the people in the communities. Content, avid, encouraged and with new knowledge they went back home after this awesome weekend.

■ Boarding School

The best time of the year is ending for the kids of the boarding school – summertime. In Moldova they have holiday for about three months, from June till September. When they come back to school they discover many changes. New sanitary facilities on the third floor where the girls have their bedrooms, new illumination in the bedrooms and other rooms were re-painted. Also the classroom for the bible-lessons was newly arranged. Please pray that the bible-lessons will be a real blessing for the children and that the teachers will be able to communicate the contents appropriate and understandable for the children.

Who wants to help people in need in Moldavia and fill their lives with joy?

Would you like to sponsor a child or an adult for just about $ 44 a month?

Thanks to your help their living circumstances can be improved and ensured.

To help the poor and needy people it is not necessary to be rich but to have a merciful heart. In Luke 6, 36 Jesus says: „Be full of compassion, even as your Father also is full of compassion.“

Yes I/we would like to sponsor a child/adult in Moldavia.

■ Community life

We are grateful for all the christening ceremonies we can celebrate each year. This is a real blessing! The seeded words bear fruits. In the city of Dubossary we already had a christening ceremony in the unfinished church hall. There were many visitors and the only available room was the church hall, which is still under construction.

The respond to our appeal for help for the family of Pascha Am-rasar was really great. We could help them quite a lot. The little daughter is happy, that she has enough food and a doll to play with. Pascha is able to work in the garden without being afraid that her children have to starve. Thanks to all of you who helped to improve their lives. First and foremost thank you in the name of Pascha and her family!
